Pasternak & Fidis Hires New Associate

BETHESDA, MD., November --, 2009 – Pasternak & Fidis, a Bethesda-based law firm, has hired Elizabeth Sun-Young Kim as its newest associate. Ms. Kim is working in the firm’s Estate Planning & Administration Group.

Before coming to Pasternak & Fidis, Ms. Kim worked at General Counsel, P.C. in McLean, Virginia, where she advised her business owner clients in business succession planning and provided estate planning services to individuals, couples, and families. Ms. Kim also concentrated her practice in business litigation, commercial post-judgment collections, and global settlement and indemnity negotiations.

Ms. Kim received her J.D. in 2006 from the George Mason University School of Law, where she served as vice president of the Full-Time Day Division Student Body and as president of the Asian Pacific American Law Students Association.

Ms. Kim graduated cum laude and with University Honors in 2000 from Miami University’s School of Business with a Bachelor of Science in Management Information Systems and double minors in Arts Management and Violin Performance.

Ms. Kim can be reached at ekim@pasternakfidis.com or at (301) 656-8850, extension 441. She is a member of the bars of Virginia and the District of Columbia.

Pasternak & Fidis, P.C., is a 17-lawyer firm located on Old Georgetown Road in downtown Bethesda, Md. Founded in 1980, the firm practices in the areas of estate planning and probate, domestic relations, premarital agreements, business advice and planning, real estate, and litigation.
